to collect all current and future claims in compliance with the documents made available.

ADRIAN Collection Services is entitled to carry out all those measures required to collect the claims, as well as:

- to receive payments in full discharge of liabilities;
- to decide independently about instalment agreements;
- to issue sub-authority to third parties, in particular solicitors to carry out court proceedings;
- to register claims in respect of insolvency proceedings.

The General Terms and Conditions of ADRIAN Collection Services apply, of which the signatory is aware.
